Announcements

The Mishkan: A Shabbat Morning Experience Saturdays, 9:30 am, Central Synagogue

Haven't yet joined us for our Mishkan service? Led by Rabbi Nicole Auerbach, Cantorial Intern Shani Ben Or and Elana Arian, this intimate, musical, participatory service features a deeper dive into the weekly Torah portion and Shabbat morning prayers. For more information and a full list of dates, visit www.centralsynagogue.org/TheMishkan.

Abbreviated Shabbat Service on March 30th

To allow everyone to get to their Seder, we will have an abbreviated Friday evening Shabbat service on March 30th which will run from 6:00 – 6:45 PM. Additionally, there will be no oneg that evening.

Easter Ushers are Needed!

Sunday, April 1, 2018 from 8:45am-10:30am, The Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church, 55th Street and Fifth Avenue

Each year The Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church donates their time to usher at Central Synagogue's High Holy Day Services. Please help us show our thanks by volunteering to usher for their Easter Service. If you are able to volunteer, please email dubin@censyn.org

Upcoming Events

Explore the Traditional Music of the Holidays with Cantorial Intern

Shani Ben Or

Wednesday, March 21, 6:30pm, Pavilion

Join Cantorial Intern Shani Ben Or and together discover the beautiful Sephardic Piyutim. These religious poems, written hundreds of years ago, have now become part of our weekly liturgy. Through this musical journey, we will explore fascinating narratives behind the origins of the Piyutim and their connection to our Jewish traditions and holidays. Please visit our website to register.

New Paradigms for American Jewish Engagement in Israel

Monday, April 9, 6:30pm, Pavilion

Rabbi Naamah Kelman, Dean of The Taube Family Campus, Hebrew Union College in Jerusalem, will lead a discussion on how American Jews, particularly Reform Jews, can best engage with today's Israel. Topics will include Women of the Wall, the stalled peace process, and current tensions around religious pluralism. There is no fee, but registration is required. Please visit our website to register.

Lunch and Learn Series: Movement and Meditation with Cantor Cadrain

Monday, April 23, 12:30 pm, Pavilion

Join Cantor Julia Cadrain as we explore the ancient Jewish practices of movement and meditation, with the intention of reaching shlemut; wholeness. All levels of experience, from brand new beginner to seasoned practitioner and all physical abilities are welcome. $15 per person. Please visit our website to register.
