"Know from where you have come in order to know what your legacy will be." -Pirke Avot 3:1

Evening of Art and Wine: Fused-glass Workshop

Thursday, June 14 or July 19, 6:30-8:30 pm, Lindenbaum Pavilion

Come enjoy an evening of art and wine with Central's very own glass artist and Assistant Childhood Director, Sasha Kopp. Sasha will guide you through the process of designing and creating your own fused-glass Mezuzah. Come alone, or with a friend – the evening will be fun for all! No prior art experience required. Click here to register.

Lunch and Learn- Music of the Psalms: Their Use in our Liturgy and Beyond

Taught by Cantor Daniel Mutlu

Monday, June 25, 12:30-2:00 pm, Lindenbaum Pavilion

The Book of Psalms is traditionally said to have been written by King David, himself. So many of these psalms include instructions for musicians as well as scenes which depict instrumentalists enhancing the words of praise. Come learn which of the many psalms are used regularly in worship and how they have been set to music in ancient times to today. Click here to register.

Talking to God – Finding Inner Resilience

Taught by Lisa Lisser

Tuesdays, June 26-July 24 & August 2, 5:00-6:00 pm, Community House

Does anybody have a map? That's what the parents in the musical "Dear Evan Hansen" ask the universe when they are struggling with issues related to their struggling kids. Whether we are on our own, or parents, children or spouses dealing with issues that were not part of our original vision for ourselves, we all can use help finding the strength within. In this class, we will explore our relationships with God, the meaning of God to us personally, and modes of developing a vocabulary to connect with that Higher Power through both traditional and modern texts. No prerequisite. Click here to register.
