- ▶ While on Zoom, students follow along with their teachers using the supplies in their homes.
- ▶ Learning about and preparing for the High Holy Days through music, art, games, and stories.

PreK-2nd Grade Curriculum and Anti-Racism

Ways in which we can incorporate Anti-Racist Language and Values in PreK-2nd Grade

- Avoiding "Ashkenormativity" –not all Jews look the same!
 - Lifting up and celebrate Jews from all different cultures and Jews that look different
- Using books that normalize non-white Jews and different family structures
 - Highlighting and explaining these differences; asking students what they notice
- Using examples of "upstanders" as a value from our Torah stories
- How are people celebrating Jewish holidays all around the world?
- Displaying Jewish ritual items from various cultures
- Normalize changing your mind in response to new information
 - "I used to think..." "Now I think..."
